

Question One – 1 Hour

Velma looked out the window at the rain pelting her prized tulips and grumbled. She turned to Darrell and told him it was time to sell the house and move to Texas. Darrell looked up from his newspaper, grunted, and went back to reading the basketball scores. Velma grabbed the paper, smacked Darrell on the head, and then stomped outside, where she noticed that some of her tulips were missing. She looked down the street and saw a vase of tulips in her neighbor Susi's window. She marched over and uprooted Susi's daffodils and went back home with a hand full of them. Later, when Susi's lights were out, Velma returned, found a window unlocked, opened it and slipped inside. As she grabbed the vase of flowers, Susi came out of the darkened bedroom, followed by Darrell. Velma threw the vase at Susi, hitting her on the head. She then pulled the gun she carried in her sock and fired twice. Darrell fell to the floor dead. As Susi screamed, Velma ran away.

Ray and Billy saw Velma run away, and decided to enter Velma's house to look around for valuables. The front door was unlocked so they let themselves in. As they entered the bedroom they were met by Rocky, the Rottweiler, and quickly jumped out the window and ran away, but not before Billy grabbed a gold watch. The next day Billy took the watch to his friend Paul, who had worked in a pawn shop, and asked him what the value might be. Paul said it was a fake and offered Billy his taco lunch for it. Billy gave Paul the watch and took the sack. When he opened it later he found nothing but wrappers and taco sauce. Paul took the watch to the pawn shop but dropped it along the way. Frida found the watch, saw the engraving "Darrell loves Velma" then tried it on and walked away.

Question Two – 1 Hour

Bob and Carol took an early run around Spring Lake with their dog Sparky; as they ran they heard someone calling for help. They came upon Ted and Alice wrestling on the ground and Alice's pants were around her ankles. When Ted spotted the couple, he let go of Alice and ran off. Bob and Sparky chased after him while Carol stayed with Alice, who told her that Ted had jumped from the bushes, grabbed her and pulled her behind the bushes then to the ground and pulled her pants off just before they arrived. While Carol waited with Alice, Bob caught up to Ted and told him to stop. Ted turned, knife in hand and told Bob to stay away. Ted then stabbed Bob twice in the arm and Bob fell. Ted grabbed Bob's cell phone and ran off. Bob staggered back to Carol and Alice and called the police.

Bob and Carol returned to their home that night where they found the window broken and their wallets missing from the bedroom. The next day Carol got a call from the bank about a suspicious withdrawal for $10,000 and she explained their loss. Police were called, and arrived just as Jason was backing away from the teller's desk. Bob's wallet was recovered. Jason said he'd traded it with Sam for a bag of fake marijuana (actually oregano). Jason also had a large wad of cash in his pocket. He said he'd sold three other bags of fake marijuana that morning to Sally, Slim and Junior. Police found Sam outside Jason's house after the Fire Dept. responded to a call of excessive smoke. Sam had stuffed the bag of oregano under Jason's stairs and was holding a box of matches while the bag smoldered.
