

Question 1 (one hour)

Addison and Bitsy, amateur soccer players, were becoming frustrated with the uneven turf at Cowvin's Indoor Soccer Field. They wanted a discount and complained about the large divots, but Cowvin, the owner, just smiled and said, "Too bad. You get what you pay for!"

One night, Addison and Bitsy decided to rob Cowvin's to recoup some of the money that they had spent at the Soccer Field. Addison agreed, at Bitsy's insistence, that no weapons would be used. They drove to Cowvin's in Bitsy's new Camero. Bitsy parked the car in the front and asked Dummy, Bitsy's wife, to wait for them in the running car. She thought that they went in for a quick soccer game. She fell asleep in the back seat.

Bitsy knew that Cowvin slept in the office, but did not tell Addison. Addison slipped in through the floor vent and once inside went to the front door to let Bitsy in. They then discovered that the nightly deposit had already been made and there was no money in the cash register. Perturbed, Addison grabbed a soccer ball and threw it, smashing through the interior office window. Cowvin, startled, woke up and shot at the intruders. One bullet hit Addison in the derriere. Bitsy, while raising his hands, begged, cried, and pleaded with Cowvin, not to shoot him and that he wishes to surrender. Addison heard, but ignored Bitsy's pleas, pulled out a gun and shot Cowvin as Cowvin lowered his pistol. Cowvin died of his injuries. Bitsy ran, while Addison hobbled toward the Camero.

In the meantime, Ediot, who had suffered from a serious mental illness, passed by Cowvin's and saw the Camero running. He jumped in and sped away. Dummy woke up and realized that it was not Bitsy driving. She bit Ediot hard on the neck, taking a large chunk of muscle and skin. Ediot pulled over to the curb, handed her the keys and said, "I'm sorry. When I see a Camero, I just can't help myself. I just have to take it."

Thinking that Dummy must have driven off in the Camero, Addison and Bitsy commandeered a ride and drove directly to the hospital. Addison survived his injuries.

What crime or crimes, if any, were committed by the parties? Answer at Common Law and Modern Law

Question 2 (one hour)

Anny was at her wits end. She was a single parent to 4 year old twins, lost her job, was being evicted from her home, and had no food in the cupboard, gas in the car or money in the bank. One night, desperate, Anny left the children home alone while she stood on the street corner to beg for money. She first encountered Betty and said, "I need money or my family may die!" Betty partially deaf heard, "Give me money or your family will die!" Scared, Betty, whacked Anny over the head with her cane, grabbed Anny's purse, and rode off in her scooter. Bleeding from the head, Anny came across Cane and asked him for money. Cane agreed to give Anny $100.00 as long as Anny helped him move some belongings from Eve's house. Anny agreed.

Moments later, Cane drove Anny to Eve's house. The lights were off and the front door was locked. Anny became suspicious when Cane asked her to crawl through a closed unlocked window. Needing $100.00 to feed the kids, Anny opened the window and crawled through and opened the front door to let Cane in. Cane then confessed to Anny that Eve was actually his ex-wife who owed him money and he was going to take her jewelry in exchange. Anny felt some sense of relieve. As they entered the bedroom, Cane was surprised to see Eve home. Eve, believing that her ex-husband was about to rape her, hit Cane over the head with a metal cow statuery. He died instantly. Scared, Anny ran from the house, after plucking a $100.00 bill from Cane's lifeless body.

On her walk home, Anny met Danaca. Danaca shared her tequila with Anny. Intoxicated, they both staggered into Safeway and started stuffing their pockets with granola bars for Anny's children and purchased a bottle of tequila with Anny's $100.00. After consuming more tequila, Anny stumbled home. She found that the twins had been violently fighting with each other, causing each one to sustain serious bruises. They were overjoyed, however, to get granola bars.

What crime or crimes have been committed by the parties, if any? Answer at common law and modern law.