COURSE DESCRIPTION:	An orientation to the study of law school examinations consisting of exam writing and techniques for the effective study of law.
COURSE OBJECTIVES/ ANTICIPATED LEARNING OUTCOMES: (What students will be expected to know and be able to do at the end of the course. What skills or knowledge will be gained by the end of the course.)	 Students will learn and practice strategies for law school exam writing. Student will explore techniques for effective learning in law school.
FORMAT OVERVIEW / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION(Description of how the course will be taught, including breakdown of lecture, practicum, etc.)	 Course material will be presented in a lecture-discussion and Socratic method format. Students should be prepared to evaluate old exams in class to spot issues and discuss how to analyze exam issues. Students will practice writing exams.
EXAMS:	The in-class midterm and final exams begin promptly at the start of class. All students must take examinations as scheduled. It is recognized that in special circumstances and due to emergencies, it may be necessary to schedule delayed examinations. An emergency is defined as a serious illness or injury to the student or a member of his or her immediate family. Special Circumstances are defined as other situations that, in the opinion of the Dean, are sufficient to warrant delay in taking examinations. Any student taking delayed examinations must have the prior written approval of the Dean . No examination may be taken prior to the day of the regularly scheduled examination. If delayed examinations are approved by the Dean, a fee of $75 will be charged for each such exam taken . Failure to complete an exam is not sufficient reason for a late or retake exam.
