

The Empire Writes Back

Volume 16, Issue 1, Winter 2016

Congratulations Students of the Month!

Alexa Rosemurgy, Priya Latchman, Allison Calder, Neeru Setia, and Hanah Reyes

NOVEMBER—Alexa is a single mom, and she holds down two part-time jobs while living in Sonoma and commuting to college. Alexa was an integral part of the Medical Office Management class's fundraising efforts for Door of Faith Orphanage. She sewed a quilt for the auction and garnered many donations as well as worked the event they hosted.

DECEMBER—Priya arrived at Empire College well grounded and was able to focus on her studies and lead study groups. She has now worked for several modules as Empire's Student Tutor, and students rave about her. She also began volunteering in her first module by offering to serve at the Homeless Outreach Health Fair.

JANUARY—Ali rose as a leader amongst her peers and kept fellow classmates motivated during the Medical Office Management class fundraiser for Mom's of Military Service Members. She is a hard worker, is always on time, and creates a light environment wherever she goes. With her positive attitude, Ali is the first to step up to try a new skill and to help a fellow student.

FEBRUARY—Neeru excels in the lab and in theory classes, and she challenges herself to learn higher-level accounting concepts. Neeru is an active member of Empire's IMA student chapter, serving as publicity director and participating in all the fundraisers. She also is a VITA volunteer preparing income taxes for low income clients.

MARCH—Since transferring from Santa Rosa Junior College, Hanah tested out of Algebra and has demonstrated strong writing skills. Her quality of work is always of the highest standard, and she has been a hardworking and diligent student. Despite a difficult work schedule and a hectic commute, she remains focused and determined. ▲

Legal Department Mentors

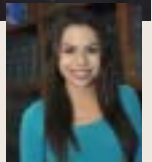

Nicole Graves was a stay-at-home mom for many years. Says Nicole, "I loved being at home and raising my children but something was missing. A few years ago my life changed; I was no longer married and I was working two jobs just to make ends meet when I heard an advertisement for a scholarship to Empire. I decided why not? Although I did not win the scholarship, I decided the time was now! Attending Empire has been one of the greatest blessings of my adult life. I am pursuing my dreams while modeling for my girls that nothing is impossible! When I graduate Empire I will not only have the skills necessary to excel in the legal field but life skills that I can take with me anywhere."

Nichole Maritzen worked in the hospitality industry as a chef and an event planner for over 20 years. Nichole says, "For most of my adult life I was a single mother raising two boys. Even though my wage was decent, I struggled to keep up with bills and the high cost of living in Sonoma County. Last year, due to economics and my medical issues, I needed to find a new career that could sustain my family and not create unnecessary hardship on my body. In 2014, I remarried and was given the opportunity to focus on my health and begin training in any new career I chose. My first thought was Empire College. I had heard so many good things about the quality of education and high success graduate rates. It didn't take long for me to decide to enroll in the paralegal program. My experience so far has been amazing. ▲"

RSA Conference 2016

On Tuesday March 1st Empire IT students went to the RSA Security conference at the Moscone Center in San Francisco. The RSA Conference is the biggest IT security conference in the world showcasing the newest products and security measures from industry leaders such as Microsoft, Cisco, RSA, IBM and many more.

The RSA Conference has gotten bigger over the years, outlining the growing need of security in modern day computing. Keynote speakers included various CEOs of major IT companies as well as Admiral Michael S. Rogers, the head of the NSA and US cyber command, Actor/Director Sean Penn, and US Attorney General Loretta Lynch.

Hundreds of vendors were pushing endpoint security products and cloud based security. Movement of data, user behavior, malware and potential attacks are all monitored, and can be managed in the Cloud by a vendor. Big were products featuring Multi-Factor Authentication (logging on to a system with more than just a password) and such devices as access tokens, smart cards, biometric devices and even cell phone for network authentication were also featured. It would be easy to spend the entire week of the conference in the expo hall and not visit all of the available booths.

The students from Empire got to play games, collect swag, win prizes and attend presentations while learning about the myriad of offerings provided by the vendors. All in all, a great experience for everyone who went!

Donated, refurbished computers benefit the community

Hardware instructor Scott Wilcox has given away many small items as needed by tech students and has picked up recycled equipment to help the person/company dispose of items and help others. This has led to a recycling and donation program that has provided tech students with machines that can be used to build a network at home.

This program has inspired students and graduates to donate some of their old systems for refurbishing and donation. Most recently, alum Chris Sutton donated 19 systems on behalf of his company, Fusion Technology Solutions. So one Friday morning, 10 IT students and 4 of Empire's IT instructors tested the hardware on the CPUs and then uninstalled all software, bringing the systems back to their original state so that they could be donated to schools and individuals.

Meet Jonathan Scott, Department Mentor

Jonathan Scott began Empire College in 2014 after pursuing a career in outside sales. "Following my time in the Army, sales was a good way to springboard into civilian life, but when I realized that I didn't love what I was doing, I knew that I needed to make a change." A career shift at 34 years old was difficult for Jonathan, but the GI Bill provided the funding and support necessary to make it happen. "I accidentally discovered that I enjoy IT at my old job. I would spend more time in the office helping people with computers instead of out selling. Empire is the best option locally for IT, and my time here has been the most fun I've had in a while."

Empire Students Assist with Tax Preparation...for Free!

Empire has a VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) site which can create and e-file your Federal and State Income Tax returns free of charge by IRS-certified tax preparers. The site is open until April 18th on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday from 2:30 - 5:30 p.m., plus Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. in Room 100. Make an appointment by calling 211.

This is the seventh consecutive year that Empire College accounting students and faculty are assisting United Way of the Wine Country in delivering free income tax services to low-to-moderate income residents through the Earn it! Keep It! Save It!/Volunteer Income Tax Assistance program. Last year, they assisted with 541 tax refunds that returned $660,061 to their clients.

Congratulations to the students who have become IRS certified in tax preparation – and thank you for volunteering your time to provide this valuable service to our community!

IMA Meetings and Events

The IMA student chapter has held a variety of events during the past few months including several fundraisers and “Meet and Greets” to welcome new students and share advice for future classes. Also, guest speaker Daren Blonski from Edward Jones spoke on financial industry career opportunities. Accounting students also visited Ridgway High School recently and volunteered as instructors for the Redwood Credit Union “Bits of Reality” session in which high school students participated in a financial learning event.

Accounting Students Attain Industry Certifications

Congratulations to the following students who have recently achieved certifications:

- Jeniebel Coto – Excel
- Nam Doran – Bookkeeping and Excel
- Neeru Setia – Excel

Above: The 2016 VITA kickoff event on January 30th was well attended, and radio station 100.9 kept it lively with their broadcast from the event.

Accounting Department Mentors

Jeniebel Coto was working at State Farm as an underwriting assistant for about ten years before they decided to move jobs to Bakersfield. “It was a great job because it had a variety of tasks – filing, answering phones, data entry, handling accounts, training new employees, etc. I like working with numbers and records. I like having order; I don’t like gray area. I do enjoy people interactions; I like helping others. My advice for students is to find a good friend, someone that will help you focus on your goal, let you have time to study, and not get you distracted.”

Last year Nam Doran was looking for another job that would give her good pay and benefits. “Although I have a bachelor degree in Hospitality Management from my country, it didn’t help me to get a good job. Then I decided to go back to school in order to gain more knowledge, switch job fields, and compete with others. My mother recommended me to Empire College because she graduated from here. In this global economy situation, I believe that education is one of the best investments for me.” ▲

Medical Students Volunteer and Raise Funds Throughout Our Community

Empire students volunteered as information ambassadors and checking blood pressure at a variety of events and locations during the American Heart Association's annual "Go Red" festivities in February.

In addition, the Medical Office Management class raised $200 for the American Heart Association.

Meet Heather Graham, Student Mentor

"I am the mother of four beautiful children, and that kept me busy and in the waitressing business for an extensive amount of time. Being a single mother, I felt the responsibility to do the best that I can and prove that if you put your mind to it, you can do it! Empire is full of support. They understand that you can get discouraged if you get a grade lower than you wanted on the test. It happens. You only fail if you stop trying!"

Congratulations to new Certified Medical Assistants!

Congratulations to those who have achieved their CCMA certification:
 Megan Bauman, CCMA-C Janelle Palm, CCMA-A
 Melissa Camacho, CCMA-AC Amayanty Torres-Molina, CCMA-C

Funds raised for YWCA's "A Special Place"

Students in the evening Event Planning class held a series of events to raise funds for A Special Place, which serves at-risk children.

It started with Nacho Noche and Sugar Rush, through which $192 was raised. That led up to their primary event on December 4, "A Special Fundraiser for A Special Place." Raffle tickets were sold for fabulous prizes (four Cruiser bikes, a one-night hotel stay in Geyserville, a wine tour for six, and two paintings done by fantastic local artists), beer, and baked goods in the parking lot. In addition, a radio station was procured and a fantastic taco truck helped draw in people. There was also a selfie photobooth, a coloring table, live artists, and a booth for YWCA. It looked fantastic.

All total, $1310 was raised. A special fundraiser indeed!

"All Wrapped Up" event for homeless fulfills "It's for the Kids" motto

On December 5th, Empire College's hospitality and business students held an event for 25 children and their parents who are homeless in our community. The student's vision was to give each child a special day, filled with presents, warm jackets, blankets, pictures with Santa Claus, family-style sit-down meal, and care packages to go.

In order to make this event happen, the students reached out to our community, and the response was amazing. Marmot donated 25 coats for all of the children; Toy Works handpicked presents for each child; and donations flowed in for silent auction items from wineries, restaurants, bakeries, and local merchants.

The event fulfilled its motto – "It's for the Kids" – creating an afternoon in which the children and their parents were celebrated, felt special, and knew that people who don't even know them, care. ▲

Thank you, Marmot, for your generous donation of coats for 25 children!

Katherine Stanford Awarded P.E.O. Scholarship

Congratulations to first-year law student Katherine Stanford who was awarded a scholarship from the Dorothy L. Weller P.E.O. Scholarship Fund. The Philanthropic Educational Organization sisterhood makes a difference in women's lives with philanthropies that include ownership of a women's college, Cottey College, and five projects that provide higher educational assistance. Empire students are encouraged to review and apply for third-party scholarships and awards that match their backgrounds and interests. We are very proud of Katie's accomplishment.

New Agricultural Law & Environmental Compliance Clinic

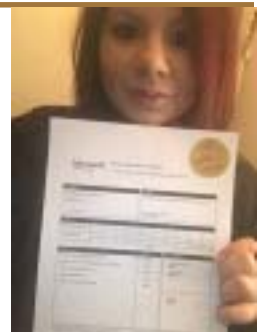

Empire College School of Law has added a seventh legal clinic that offers assistance to the public at no charge. Supervised by Professor Tina Wallis, the clinic will be of special concern for small ranchers especially with possible water and land impacts with drought and El Nino predictions.

Empire's clinics provide students with opportunities to interact with clients, provide advice, follow-up, and direct clients to legal and non-legal resources. Students draft legal documents and correspondence under the supervision of practicing attorneys. ▲

Meet John Rupert, Business Department Mentor

John Rupert has lived in Sonoma County his whole life. "I graduated high school in 2013 and took a year break that turned into two years. During those two years, I realized that if I wanted to be successful I definitely needed to go back to school. Now I'm very motivated for my future, and I can already tell Empire is the perfect school for me. I would like to open my own store in the future, so I especially love the business classes I've been taking. There's so much information I've been learning that is going to help me when the time comes for me to open my store." ▲

A national recognition system designed to highlight public service in America, the Jefferson Awards began as part of the American Institute for Public Service in 1972 and was established by Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis, U.S. Senator Robert Taft, Jr., and Sam Beard, a staffer to Bobby Kennedy.

Locally, the program was adopted by the County of Sonoma Board of Supervisors in 2006. After an analysis of other local recognition programs, the County's program was designed to highlight the value of non-profit organizations, boards, commissions and advisory bodies, as well as individual efforts for Excellence in Community Leadership and Civic Engagement.

"The Empire College Board of Directors is pleased to be recognized among this year's Jefferson Award honorees," stated Roy Hurd, chairman of the board and president of Empire College. "It is a tribute to the legacy of our founder, Henry Trione, and to our faculty and staff's commitment to fostering service learning and volunteerism among our students. Collectively they provide a variety of free services each year and raise thousands of dollars for nonprofit agencies and local residents."

President Hurd added, "The members of the Empire College Board proudly reaffirm our pledge as a community resource and educational asset. We are committed to providing ongoing leadership to promote engagement in addressing community issues." ▲
