Instructions

- Since the program is on the Internet, you may work on this at home but will need a copy of the correct version of the Office program on your computer.
- Each GMetrix Microsoft Office application features training with directions on how to perform each step if you need them.
- After the completion of each training, the testings are timed and present a smaller, randomized selection of questions. These must receive an 85 percent or better score. Complete them until you have reached this score.

NOTES — PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

1. TRACK YOUR PROGRESS EACH DAY.
2. USE the training hints until you fully understand the concepts for each section.
3. VERY IMPORTANT: Take notes for a thorough understanding of PowerPoint. Use this time, your books, and this program to KNOW PowerPoint and use the features that are available. This will help you once you are looking for employment. Anyone can just move through the assignments to get them done. Take the time to understand and know what you are doing and use every feature available to you in the program. It will really help you in your future and the career that you hope to begin once you graduate Empire College.

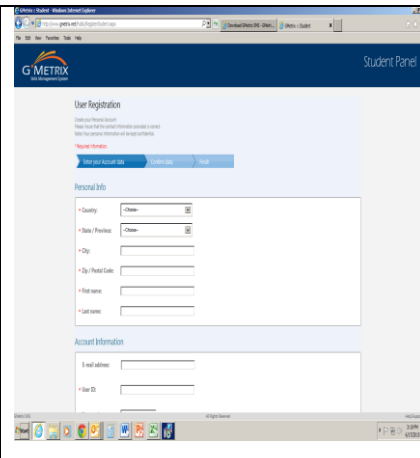

Training, Testing, and MOS Certification Testing

Trainings	The trainings are not timed. Use the hint feature to help you learn the concepts featured in the certification exam. Repeat as many times as needed.
Answering Questions	Make sure that you have mastered the objectives before attempting the testing. All concepts on the tests are covered in the training portion of the software.
Testing	The Testings are timed and present a smaller, randomized selection of questions. Your score to pass the class must be 85 percent or better for each testing exam. You may take the Test as many times as necessary to reach the minimum 85% score.
Progress	Check your progress on a regular basis as you work on the assignments.
MOS Certification Testing	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1.
