Sonoma County Tourism Ambassadors, 2015,

CLASS DESCRIPTION:

Today's successful hospitality employee must have effective guest service skills in a highly competitive market. Employees must be able to engage and connect with guests to go above and beyond the call of duty, to wow the guest at each Moment of Truth. Recovery, personalization, knowledge, passion commitment, inclusion and personality will be discussed as cornerstones of customer service in the text and DVD. These will be augmented with a Setting the Table Video and the five I.C.A.R.E. from Disney and others. Case studies and situational analysis will apply these principles giving students an opportunity to observe and directly apply what is covered in class.

CLASS OBJECTIVES:

Students will learn different aspects of the profession of hotel concierge, focusing on the service issues and opportunities that have shaped the concierge profession. Topics include: thinking like a concierge, building and nurturing relationships, the effects of technology on the concierge's role, and the evolution of the concierge phenomenon.

Successful candidates will receive a certificate and CGSP gold lapel pin, that can be worn on their uniform in recognition of their knowledge and skills in guest service. The Certified Guest Service Professional (CGSP) designation provides recognition for those individuals that know how to achieve and express exceptional service by engaging with their guests and creating memorable experiences. Recognized worldwide, the CGSP designation is the acknowledgment of award-winning guest service for employees in the lodging industry. Completion of the Sonoma County Tourism Ambassadors materials, instruction, and testing will also provide an official designation as a CTA for Sonoma County.

Practical information prepares them to put enlightened hospitality tools into action to enhance service and boost business.

CLASS FORMAT OVERVIEW:

This class is a combination of lecture, student participation, and on-line research.

REQUIREMENTS: Time spent in preparation for or reflection on course lecture will approximate two hours outside of class for each lecture credit hour utilized by the instructor in delivery of the material and ¼ hour outside of class for each hour of structured lab time.
