CLASS DESCRIPTION:	This class is designed to teach students the basics of professional financing options in the creation of a business. Special emphasis is placed on the pivotal role of marketing, including product, promotion, distribution, and pricing.
CLASS OBJECTIVES:	After completing this course, the student should have a fundamental understanding of the skills and personal characteristics necessary to meet the high standards of top-level managers in business.
CLASS FORMAT OVERVIEW:	Since lecture, in-class assignments, and team assignments are the main means of instruction in this class, students are expected to be present every day to participate in class discussion, to participate in team activities, and to communicate with team members and the instructor in a timely, professional manner.  If a student's attendance falls below 80 percent, the class must be rescheduled. At all times, it will be up to the student to learn of any work assigned while he or she was absent. In-class assignments are given periodically and may not be made up.
REQUIREMENTS:	Time spent in preparation for or reflection on course lecture will approximate two hours outside of class for each lecture credit hour utilized by the instructor in delivery of the material and ¼ hour outside of class for each hour of structured lab time.
ATTENDANCE:	It is critical to the student's success to attend class every day. If a student's overall attendance drops below 80 percent, he or she will be asked to drop the course and restart.
TESTING:	Quizzes will cover the chapters in the textbook.
GRADING POLICIES:	The following grading policies will apply:

1. The quizzes and weekly presentations are 60 percent of the final grade.
2. The small business plan project and presentation are 20 percent of the final grade.
3. The final project participation and presentation are 20 percent of the final grade.

Late Assignment(s): Late assignments will not be accepted.

FINAL GRADE:

The final grade will be the result of all work completed and will be calculated as follows:
