(One hour)

Joel and Sally went for a bike ride around Spring Lake. They came upon two people arguing and saw one of them (Bill) push the other (Dave) to the ground. Joel jumped off his bike and grabbed Bill while Sally called 911. When Bill tried to pull away Joel took out his knife and stabbed him. Bill died. Dave got up and jumped on Joel's bike and rode away. When police arrived, a jogger on the path, Pat, came up and showed police her cell phone video of Dave ordering Bill to hand over his wallet just before he was pushed to the ground. Meanwhile Dave took the bike to Carl's SportShack and offered to sell it for $100. Seeing that it was a handmade carbon fiber bike, Carl asked why so cheap? Dave said it had a bent frame. Carl looked closely and saw it was in outstanding condition, agreed and then offered $50 which Dave took. While Joel and Sally were at Spring Lake, their son, Dillon, invited a couple of friends over to party. The three sat outside smoking marijuana. They talked about getting more marijuana from a grow in a neighbor's house. At one point Dillon went over and went into the attached garage try to see the size of the grow. One friend, Gus, kept lighting the bong and tossing the match into the brush by Dillon's house. Dillon told Gus not to do it, but he continued. Soon the three saw smoke, then flames as the house was ignited. Dillon ran into the house to alert his grandmother, but was overcome by smoke and both he and his grandmother died.

What if any crimes have occurred.

(One hour)

Gary and Suzy bought a new home in Penngrove. The Sellers agreed to leave all fixtures, a couch and grandfather clock. The move-in date was June 1. The Sellers finished packing on May 30 and Gary and Suzy came over with a bottle of wine to wish them well. Suzy noticed the grandfather clock missing, went into the moving truck and found it. She also found an oil painting she had admired and removed both items, putting them in her car. After the toast, Gary and Suzy headed home to finish packing for the move. They arrived to find a strange car on the street in front of the house with no one around. As they turned in, the dog started to bark and a stranger appeared in the doorway. Gary grabbed his gun and fired once, causing the stranger to fall to the ground. When the lights were turned on, Gary realized he'd shot the new buyer of his home, Bret. Bret was taken to the hospital where the surgeon removed the bullet, but missed a nicked artery and Bret bled to death. The realtor, Ron, told police that Bret had emailed him that he thought the house was his on May 30th, and being a locksmith, could let himself in and collect the keys later.

What crimes occurred.
