COURSE DESCRIPTION:	Intentional wrongs to person and property; unintentional wrongs; negligence; duty of persons in control of property; tort liability arising from contractual relationships; liability for defective products; liability without fault; deceit; defamation; malicious prosecution; interference with contractual economic and other legally protectable relations, tort alternatives.
COURSE OBJECTIVES / ANTICIPATED LEARNING OUTCOMES: (Description of what students will be expected to know and be able to do at the end of the course. What skills or knowledge will be gained by the end of the course.)	This course will cover intentional wrongs to person and property; negligence; duty of persons in control of property; liability without fault; products liability; nuisance; defamation; privacy; misuse of legal process; misrepresentation; interference with contractual relations; and unclassified torts. Students will learn the essential elements for the various torts, as well as their interrelationships. Fact patterns will be analyzed to ascertain the different theories of tort liability which may be applied. Students will be expected to learn the elements of each tort and all potential defenses. They will be expected to demonstrate their knowledge through classroom case briefing, discussion, and

	performance on essay and multiple choice exams. While goals of the course include consideration of the evolution of tort law, and how tort law fits into the larger social fabric; the principle goal of the course is to cause students to develop and demonstrate a level of competency in this core subject that will allow them to practice tort law in the state of their choosing.
FORMAT OVERVIEW / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION (Description of how the course will be taught, including breakdown of lecture, practicum, etc.)	Course material will be presented in a lecture-discussion and Socratic method format. Students will be expected to participate in briefing and class discussions.
EXAMS:	The grade will be comprised of the results of a three hour midterm Exam (25%) and a three hour final exam (75%). Two essay questions and a series of multi-state/multiple choice questions will be given for both the midterm and final exams. For the essay questions, students will be expected to identify the legal issues raised in the fact patterns, apply the appropriate rules of law, and arrive at a well reasoned conclusion. For the multi-state/multiple choice questions, students will be expected to choose the best of alternative answers, according to generally accepted common law views, without consideration of any statutes. General Policies: Exams begin promptly at 6 p.m. All students must take examinations as scheduled. It is recognized that in special circumstances and due to emergencies, it may be necessary to schedule delayed examinations. An emergency is defined as a serious illness or injury to the student or a member of his or her immediate family. Special Circumstances are defined as other situations that, in the opinion of the Dean, are sufficient to warrant delay in taking examinations. Any student taking delayed examinations must have the prior written approval of the Dean. No examination may be taken prior to the day of the regularly scheduled examination. If delayed examinations are approved by the Dean, a fee of $75 will be charged for each such exam taken. Failure to complete an exam is not sufficient reason for a late or retake exam.
GRADING / ASSESSMENT CRITERIA/CLASS POLICIES:	Empire College uses the following grading system: Numerically graded classes: 90 – 100 A Outstanding 80 - 89 B Superior 70 - 79 C Satisfactory 65 - 69 D Unsatisfactory 64 and Below Failing/No Credit Only numeric grades in Required courses are used to calculate grade point average.

	The grade will be comprised of the results of a: Three-hour Midterm exam (25%) and a Three-hour cumulative Final exam (75%).
ATTENDANCE:	Regular and punctual attendance is essential for the successful completion of law school. Students should plan to attend every class.
