COURSE OBJECTIVES / ANTICIPATED LEARNING OUTCOMES: (Description of what students will be expected to know and be able to do at the end of the course. What skills or knowledge will be gained by the end of the course.)	This class will provide an understanding of the way in which people litigate in the civil courts. You will gain an understanding of general civil procedure with an emphasis on federal civil procedure. The first semester will cover basic issues of jurisdiction, venue, parties and claims, pleadings and motions. The second semester will introduce the student to the details of pretrial discovery, an overview of final pretrial and trial procedure. The second semester will also introduce the student to the intricacy of joinder and both issue and claim preclusion. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students must demonstrate the minimum level of competency for an attorney in CA in the subject matter of Civil Procedure. • Students must demonstrate they possess a minimum level of

	knowledge to pass a CA State Bar Examination question involving the subject matter of Civil Procedure. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The student needs to acquire a working knowledge of Civil Procedure in both the state and federal courts. Students should expect to spend a minimum of two hours/per hour of instruction time on assigned readings and briefing cases. For example, a 3-hour class would require at least 6 hours of outside preparation time per week.
FORMAT OVERVIEW / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION (Description of how the course will be taught, including breakdown of lecture, practicum, etc.)	Course material will be presented in a lecture-discussion and Socratic method format. Students will be expected to participate in briefing and class discussions.
EXAMS:	The grade will be comprised of the results of a two hour midterm Exam (25%) and a cumulative three-hour final exam (75%). The midterm exam will be cumulative for the first semester. The final exam will be cumulative, covering all course material from both semesters. Two essay questions and a series of multi-state/multiple choice questions will be given for both the midterm and final exams. For the essay questions, students will be expected to identify the legal issues raised in the fact patterns, apply the appropriate rules of law, and arrive at a well reasoned conclusion. For the multi-state/multiple choice questions, students will be expected to choose the best of alternative answers, according to generally accepted common law views, without consideration of any statutes. General Policies: Exams begin promptly at 6 p.m. All students must take examinations as scheduled. It is recognized that in special circumstances and due to emergencies, it may be necessary to schedule delayed examinations. An emergency is defined as a serious illness or injury to the student or a member of his or her immediate family. Special Circumstances are defined as other situations that, in the opinion of the Dean, are sufficient to warrant delay in taking examinations. Any student taking delayed examinations must have the prior written approval of the Dean. No examination may be taken prior to the day of the regularly scheduled examination. If delayed examinations are approved by the Dean, a fee of $75 will be charged for each such exam taken. Failure to complete an exam is not sufficient reason for a late or retake exam.
