COURSE DESCRIPTION:	This course will teach students the fundamental legal framework of California cities and counties. It focuses on both substantive areas of municipal law and the process required when local governments legislate and adjudicate. The course will provide practical information, discuss current issues facing local governments, and discuss the most recent, cutting-edge cases.
COURSE OBJECTIVES / ANTICIPATED LEARNING OUTCOMES: (Description of what students will be expected to know and be able to do at the end of the course. What skills or knowledge will be gained by the end of the course.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Students will learn about the framework, issues and law of California governmental entities.</li> <li>• The objective of this class is to teach students the fundamental legal principles and concepts involved in California government law. Individual classes will include: the Brown Act, Public Records Act, Land Use, Public Sector Employment Law, Government Pension Plans, and Governmental Litigation, among others.</li> </ul> Students generally can expect to spend a minimum of two hours/per hour of instruction time on assigned readings and briefing cases. For example, a 3-hour class would require at least 6 hours of outside preparation time per week.
FORMAT OVERVIEW / METHOD OF INSTRUCTION (Description of how the course will be taught, including breakdown of lecture, practicum, etc.)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Course material will be presented in a lecture-discussion and Socratic method format.</li> <li>• Students should be prepared to discuss all assigned cases.</li> <li>• Class participation and attendance are mandatory.</li> </ul>
EXAMS:	Students will be required to attend a meeting of a local government (city or county), or an administrative hearing involving a governmental entity. Students should review the Agenda before attending the meeting or hearing, so that they will be familiar with the topics discussed. Following the meeting/hearing, students will present to the class what they observed and

	learned. The focus of the presentations should be on the process used and any areas of substantive law that were involved. Each presentation should be about ten to fifteen minutes. Final Exam –general information – no final exam in this elective Exams begin promptly at 6 p.m. Take-home exams and papers must be submitted to the Law School office by 6 p.m. on the due date, unless otherwise noted. All students must take examinations as scheduled. It is recognized that in special circumstances and due to emergencies, it may be necessary to schedule delayed examinations. An emergency is defined as a serious illness or injury to the student or a member of his or her immediate family. Special Circumstances are defined as other situations that, in the opinion of the Dean, are sufficient to warrant delay in taking examinations. Any student taking delayed examinations must have the prior written approval of the Dean. No examination may be taken prior to the day of the regularly scheduled examination. If delayed examinations are approved by the Dean, a fee of $75 will be charged for each such exam taken. Failure to complete an exam is not sufficient reason for a late or retake exam.
GRADING / ASSESSMENT CRITERIA:	Empire College uses the following grading system for electives:  Pass/Fail:  65 - 100 - P Pass/Credit  64 and Below - F Fail/No Credit  (Only numeric grades in Required courses are used to calculate grade point average.) The grade will be comprised of the results of:  Attendance [20% of class grade] and  Participation [30% of class grade] and  Presentation on an administrative hearing or government meeting you attend [50% of the class grade].
